

WHINN delegation 2019

Tuesday november 19th

Focus area: Hospital Innovation, prevention & EMS

Odense

Delegation: Healthcare professionals

Number of participants: TBA

Tuesday November 19 th
08:30 – 09:00	Pick up from Radisson Blu H. C Andersen´s Hotel & transport
09:15 – 10:00 Address: OUH Klørvænget 28 Entrance 63 ED, 5000 Odense C	Welcome at Odense University Hospital Odense Odense University Hospital (9:00 – 12:00) OUH is one of four university hospitals in Denmark. It is one of the largest education and training centers in the Region of Southern Denmark, having a close collaboration with the University of Southern Denmark - Campus Odense. CIMT (Center for Innovative Medical Technology) is the innovation department that works in the field of medical technology. During the visit, you will get an introduction to Odense University Hospital and hear about the role they play as an important player in health innovation in Denmark and Europe and their work with innovation, prevention and Acute care/EMS. After the general presentation, the group will split in two. One group will go to the Emergency Department of OUH and get an Introduction to the way the ED is designed and constructed to work with emergency patients in a new way. The visit will comprise of presentations related to the new ED building and of innovative IT-systems in the ED and then a tour of the department. The second group will be introduced the Steno Diabetes center South as well as the big project The New University Hospital Odense TBA (Representative from the Management)
10:00 – 12:00 Track I	The New Odense University Hospital <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Construction, Strategy & Vision • View of the construction site/progress of the project • The future digital hospital TBA Steno Diabetes Center Odense Steno Diabetes Center Odense's objectives and measures to combat diabetes in the Region of Southern Denmark are: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • How to achieve a lasting and significant improvement in the prevention and early detection of diabetes • How can we slow the growth in the number of people with newly diagnosed diabetes

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • How can we ensure that people with diabetes achieve normal life expectancy and quality of life • Dialogue – Q & A TBA
10:00 – 12:00 Track II	A model for acute care facilities of the future Emergency care in Denmark was optimized during the period 2009-2012, where the concept of joint Emergency Departments was implemented. New principles made to offer the patients an integrated approach, where different specialties are working closely together and using the newest technology. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Short joint introduction to Shared Emergency department The delegation split into two groups, A & B • A: Speech a model for acute care • B: Clinical Site visit • Break • B: Speech a model for acute care • A: Clinical Site visit • Q&A TBA
12:00 – 12:30	Transport to SDU – University of Southern Denmark
12:30 – 13:15	University of Southern Denmark - Department of Sports Science and Clinical Biomechanics Welcome session & lunch The Department deals with research, innovation and scientific knowledge based upon studies of the human body, the musculoskeletal system, sport, exercise, active living and movement. Attention is particularly paid to physical activity and exercise in sports and in health promotion, prevention, treatment of diseases and rehabilitation, including cultural, political, psychological and pedagogical aspects of sport and physical activity. http://www.sdu.dk/en/ TBA
13:15 – 15:30	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Guided tour of the Department • Vision of innovation, entrepreneurship and focus areas • Institutional Set-up of the area of research and education • Prevention & rehabilitation –Case examples within physiotherapy
15:30 – 16:00	Transport back to Radisson Blu H. C Andersen Hotel